WELCOME TO LEHIGH VALLEY

Discover a place with the vibrancy of your favorite Crayola® colors, the soundtrack of your favorite Martin® guitar riff, and the romance of historic covered bridges. Steeped in precolonial, early American, and industrial history, Lehigh Valley is bursting with nationally-recognized events, exciting nightlife, adventurous outdoor activities, and modern and contemporary arts—not what you'd expect from a place that is also home to rolling hills and calming countrysides.

When you're planning your visit to Lehigh Valley, take advantage of a wide variety of accommodations ready to suit your needs. Choose from nationally-recognized brands in easily accessible locations, full-service resorts, or quaint bed-and-breakfasts offering a relaxing escape.

Move here, live here, work here, play here. If there was ever a place to put down some roots or lift your spirits in the most unexpected ways, this is it. Welcome to Lehigh Valley.

IMMERSE YOURSELF IN CULTURE & HISTORY.

Lehigh Valley's historic Moravian Bethlehem, a National Historic Landmark District, provides a unique, historically rich and culturally significant way of life for over 300 years. For a dose of culture, tour facilities including the Allentown Art Museum, the National Museum of Industrial History (a Smithsonian affiliate), and the C.F. Martin Guitar Factory & Museum.

TASTE THE LOCAL FLAVORS.

From fresh produce at area farmers markets to James Beard Award nominated restaurants, the food scene in Lehigh Valley is flourishing. Wander the main streets of Lehigh Valley's downtowns and you'll spot restaurants showcasing cuisines of all types. These local flavors extend beyond foodie favorite restaurants with a booming craft beverage scene of nearly 50 makers of wine, beer, and distilled spirits.

EXPERIENCE UNFORGETTABLE FESTIVALS.

From the magic of the holiday season to food-centric celebrations, Lehigh Valley has a festival to fit all tastes. Mark your calendars for annual favorites including Musikfest (August), the Great Allentown Fair (Labor Day weekend), PA Bacon Fest (November), and more.

BREATHE IN FRESH AIR.

Whether you're looking to explore on foot, by bike, or via the water, Lehigh Valley offers an unparalleled outdoor recreation scene. Don't miss the Delaware & Lehigh National Heritage Trail which spans 165 total miles of rail trails, 48 of them passing through Lehigh Valley.

WOW YOUR FAMILY.

Kids of all ages will find things to see & do in Lehigh Valley, and parents won't have to worry about breaking the bank! Race down rollercoasters at Dorney Park & Wildwater Kingdom. Create your next piece of artwork at the Crayola Experience™. Uncover the science of how things work at the Da Vinci Science Center.

CHEER FOR THE HOME TEAM.

Lehigh Valley marks the path for athletes looking to hit the major leagues. Catch the Lehigh Valley IronPigs, Triple-A affiliate of the Philadelphia Phillies, in action at Coca-Cola Park (and be sure to enjoy some bacon-centric treats). During the winter months, head indoors to the PPL Center for a Lehigh Valley Phantoms game, AHL affiliate of the Philadelphia Flyers. Watch Olympic hopefuls speed around the banked track at the Valley Preferred Cycling Center, one of the top destinations in the world for track cycling.

FAST FACTS

The Easton Farmers' Market is the oldest continuously operating open-air market in the country. On Saturdays through the warmer months, you can shop from 30+ vendors in the city's Centre Square.

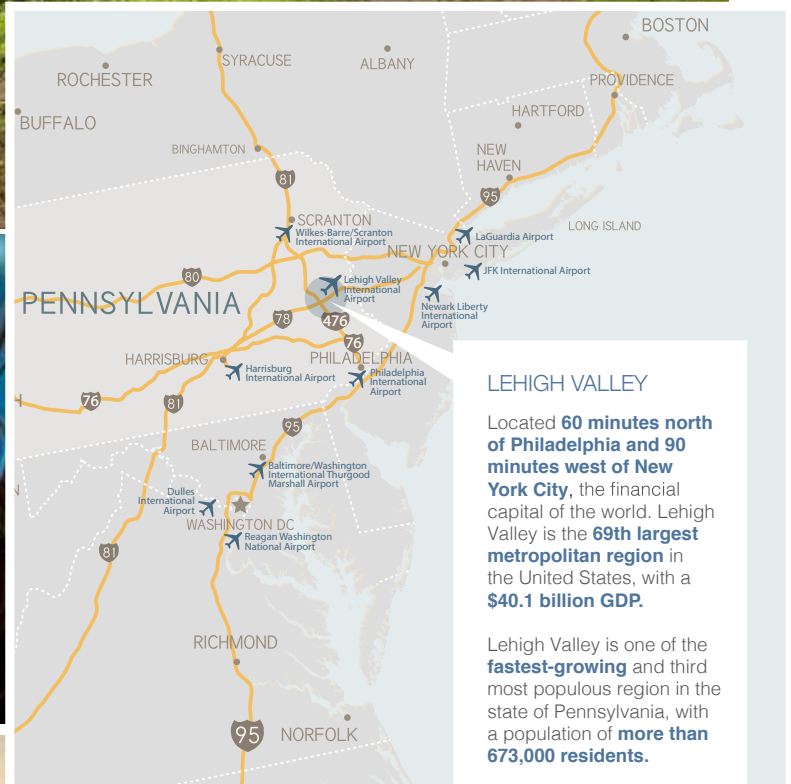

Historic Moravian Bethlehem is a designated National Historic Landmark District and has been short-listed for nomination to the World Heritage List.

Lehigh Valley is home to some of America's favorite brands including Crayola, C.F. Martin Guitar, Mack Trucks, and Just Born, Inc. (makers of Mike & Ikes, Hot Tamales, and PEEPS).

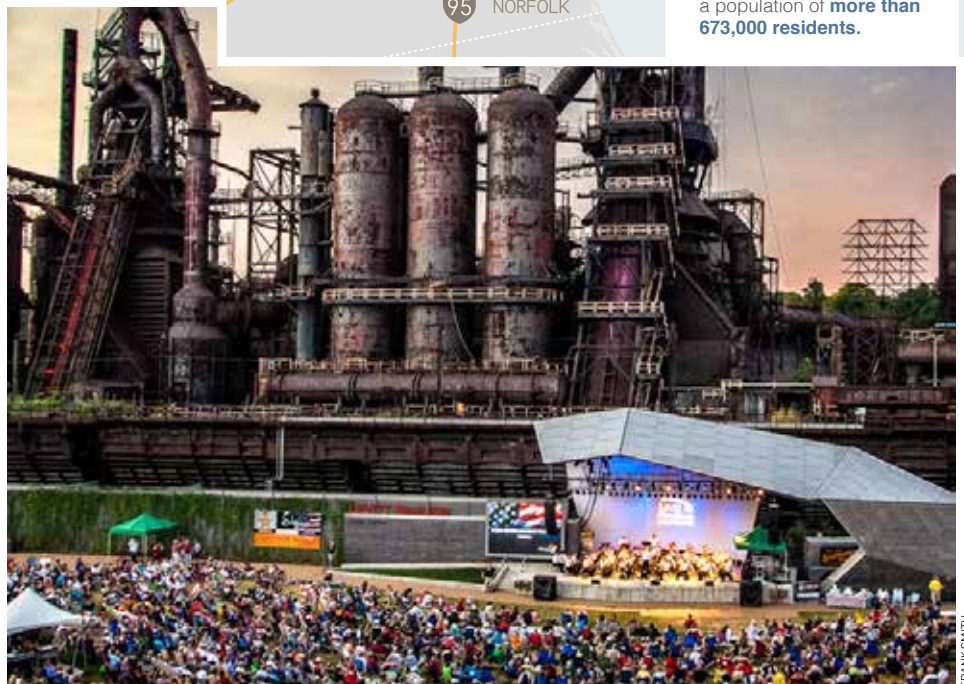

The City of Allentown features more parkland per capita than any other city its size in the United States.

THERE IS A REASON LEHIGH VALLEY IS DIFFERENT.

The region's access to markets, space, capital, and talented labor are unparalleled. The economy is thriving, the culture is diverse, and the quality of life is phenomenal. Companies and people are choosing to locate in Lehigh Valley and start a new venture in a growing region that's famous for its makers.

In Lehigh Valley, it's not unheard of to have a job you love and a home you can afford. You can create a life, a business, or a career on your own terms. With more than 15,000 businesses calling the region home, there is no shortage of opportunities for professionals of all skill levels and backgrounds.

Thanks in part to changing demographic trends and preferences, the cities, boroughs, and towns of Lehigh Valley have increasingly become a symbol of the overall strength of the region. Lehigh Valley has thriving downtown neighborhoods in each of its three cities, placing the region in a perfect position to capitalize on the growing trends of millennials and workers seeking the life-work balance offered here.

Those of us who live and work in Lehigh Valley every day already know what a special place it is. Now we want to make sure the rest of the world knows all that's made possible in Lehigh Valley.

LEHIGH VALLEY VOICES

"My family and I initially moved to Lehigh Valley looking for a more balanced work and home life.

At the time, we were living in central New Jersey and found that there was no sense of community. At first, we weren't sure if the Valley was the right place for us, but fourteen years later, we are still here and don't see ourselves living anywhere else."

OUTSTANDING SCHOOLS FOR ALL LEVELS OF LEARNING.

Lehigh Valley's education system is second-to-none, with exceptional primary, secondary, technical, and post-secondary schools that produce students ready for success.

Here, you'll find award-winning public and private schools, including the only public school on the East Coast guided by Waldorf Education principles. The 93% graduation rate at our public high schools exceeds both state and national rates. Lehigh Valley also boasts three career and technical schools that prepare students with a wide range of in-demand job skills.

Each year, Lehigh Valley's prestigious private colleges, state universities, and community colleges graduate more than 10,000 students. Our two community colleges produced 14% of all associate degrees awarded in Pennsylvania in 2017. Whether you are looking for a college that pre-dates the American Revolution or a premier private research university, Lehigh Valley is the place to learn.
